

A PROUD AFFILIATE OF STUDENT ATHLETE WORLD

We help you get recruited.

THE NATION'S MOST PERSONAL AND HONEST COLLEGE RECRUITING COMPANY

A Personal and Honest Approach

Athletes, Parents, and Coaches,

This is Dan Rothert founder of Top Student Athlete Recruiting. In my time as a college coach and administrator I saw the good, bad and ugly of college athletic recruiting and had seen so many mistakes, I wanted to bring an honest and personal approach to helping prospects and families.

I partnered with STUDENTathleteWorld (SaW) and believe with the technology and resources of SaW and my expertise in the field, Top Student Athlete Recruiting is a game changer in helping prospects in the constantly changing world of college athletic recruiting.

The unfortunate reality is this industry has a bad reputation. Part of that is due to some companies who took advantage of the marketplace. However, in my opinion, part of it is due to unrealistic expectations of college recruiting perpetuated by youth coaches, parents, and the media.

I've always felt a strong passion for bringing some normalcy to this process and the youth sports industry in general.

The TSA program is put together to give clients what they need in the process, not what parents want to buy.

Parents want to buy 'exposure' and influence coaches to get their kids the upper hand in the process.

Unfortunately, it just doesn't work that way. College athletic recruiting is about developing recruiting relationships with college coaches, casting a wide net, and being realistic. If you do that, you will be successful.

We've built a great platform for athletes to navigate the recruiting process. It's not a magic wand. But it has been very effective for the student-athletes and families who use our service.

If you want honest advice, personal service, and a realistic game plan for success in college athletic recruiting; you have come to the right place!

Dan Rothert

Dan Rothert spent 24 years as a college men's and women's soccer coach and is one of the most successful college coaches in NCAA history. Rothert also served as Associate AD, overseeing recruiting for all sports, and understands the ins and outs of recruiting, admissions and financial aid.

THE GOAL

“To help you find the best education, at the best price, that allows you to continue to participate in the sport you love”

“WHEN I DECIDED TO LEAVE COACHING AND START MY OWN RECRUITING SERVICE, I WANTED TO PARTNER WITH SaW. SaW PROVIDES THE BEST TECHNOLOGY AND RESOURCES IN THE BUSINESS AND THIS PARTNERSHIP ALLOWS ME TO FOCUS ON MY CLIENTS AND USE MY EXPERIENCE AND EXPERTISE TO SERVE THEM AT AN UNMATCHED LEVEL FOUND IN THIS INDUSTRY.”

Our Services

What We Do

We offer a full service program that includes all aspects of the college athletic recruiting process. We help you to navigate this important journey and often first major life decision.

Evaluation- We provide a non-biased, blind evaluation process that ensures you target the right schools. We see all our clients compete which allows us to know exactly the type of student-athlete we are working with so we can recommend them to the appropriate college programs.

College Match- Our exclusive SaW College Match program matches your abilities and evaluation with potential schools that match your preferences and abilities. This connects you with great schools you may not know of and ensures you focus on the colleges that fit you best!

Relationships- Coach Rothert’s connections in college athletics run deep and allow him to connect his clients with the appropriate colleges, coaches and athletic programs. This is a differentiator compared to others.

Video- We can help create professional highlight videos if needed. We also film when we go evaluate, so if a client needs film, we have them covered.

Consultation- Throughout your high school career, we will guide you through the recruiting process, acting as a consultant on your behalf with your best interests in mind. Consultation includes assistance in the admissions, financial aid, NCAA rules, and unlimited access to your personal recruiting coach, Dan Rothert. We will talk with you, your family, your coaches, and our scouting staff to offer customized professional guidance.

We Offer...

Tools- Our website includes all the tools you need to make sure all college coaches know about you — don’t wait to hear from coaches! Our SaW College Match program contains more than 2,000 colleges and universities and more than 20,000 college coaches.

Guidance- Coach Rothert is your personal recruiting coach and his role is to help you use our tools and teach you how to use leverage to create specific playing, scholarship and admissions opportunities and how to determine which recruiting opportunity matches your specific wants and needs.

To Develop Opportunities...

Admissions- The combination of academic and athletic skill can help a high school student-athlete stand out amongst the crowd in the application process. Each student-athlete has an on campus cheerleader — the coach!

Athletic- A College Coach may have need for an athlete with your specific size, skill and personality to fill a roster spot. However, if they don't know about you, you won't fill the roster spot!

Financial- A College Coach is an influencer and decision maker in the college financial aid process. If he/she wants you to play, financial and merit based aid can be made available.

Why Top Student Athlete Recruiting?

Based on Your Specific Needs...

Educational- What educational program are you interested in? What post-graduate career do you want to explore?

Personal- What type of school are you looking for? Small, Big, Urban, Rural? Does walking onto campus give you a good feeling or bad?

Extra-Curricular- Sports, Student Government, Religion, etc. What will round out your college experience?

Let Us Show You...

Why your child is in demand and will generate tremendous interest at schools nationwide right now!

Why it is impossible for a family to uncover all of the opportunities alone and why it is unfair to place the burden on your coach.

How to become a smarter purchaser of a college education and stretch the dollars you have available.

How to improve your child's chances of being recruited and admitted into a top-flight College or University.

To What Colleges Have You Sent Student-athletes?

SaW has sent prospects to nearly every single College and University in the Country! We've sent thousands of athletes to big and small schools across the Nation. Please check out our SUCCESS STORIES book or the WHERE ARE THEY NOW section of our website.

What is Your Success Rate?

While we have had our fair share of "Blue Chip" athletes, not every client that enrolls with us is athletically capable of obtaining an NCAA D1 full scholarship in their sport. Many of our clients are more concerned with finding the right "fit" for their college careers. Some clients even go through our program and pass up on opportunities to play at the NCAA D1 level because they find opportunities at other levels that better fit their academic, athletic, and personal goals.

So how do you define our success rate? What is success? For some clients it's about obtaining an NCAA D1 scholarship. For others it's about saving money on college. For others it's about providing lots of options. Other clients are more interested in our honesty, availability, and effort in helping them through the journey. The truth is that it's pretty hard to put a number on our success.

To put it in its simplest terms, 100% of our clients who engage in the recruiting process using our proven system have been offered multiple playing opportunities at the college level. A small percentage, less than 5%, may have decided not to pursue those opportunities for various reasons. While we can't control every variable, we can say emphatically our program works for 100% of the clients who use it as designed. So, what's our success rate? 100%, we are sticking with it!

Testimonials

From Parents, Athletes, and Coaches

Joe and Tonya Howe, parents of Nolan Howe (Iowa) who committed to Cornell College

"We are Tonya and Joe Howe and we'd like to share our experience with Dan Rothert's role in our son Nolan's soccer career. We were to that point in the college search with Nolan where most kids had picked their college and had a plan. Nolan had absolutely no idea what he wanted to do or where he wanted to go. One thing he did know was that if it was possible, he'd like to continue his soccer career. It was nerve racking not knowing where he fit into the soccer world which was making the search even more difficult. We invited Dan to our home to talk to Nolan about some options. Dan came over and asked Nolan a lot of questions. Through these conversations, Dan recommended a handful of schools that he felt would make a good fit athletically and academically. The ball really started to roll at this point. Dan helped Nolan navigate and narrow down his search to three schools. Nolan started with each school's "recruit me" page to get added to their recruiting pool. Nolan set up visits with the three schools to check the school out and meet the coach. Dan had sent these coaches his knowledge of what kind of student athlete Nolan would be for them. We had one coach tell us he would try to get to some of his games, but if for some reason he couldn't make it, he wasn't worried because Dan's recommendation is good enough for him. Nolan chose Cornell College in Mt. Vernon Iowa. It fit Nolan's desire for a small school, close to home (but not in his hometown) where he would be able to be an impact player immediately. Ultimately, Nolan just wanted to play. Nolan was a four year starter. He was the captain his Junior and Senior year. We are firm believers that continuing his life as a student athlete helped to keep Nolan focused to graduate on time. Dan came into Nolan's life when he was nervous and unsure. Dan helped breath confidence into Nolan's life that helped carry him through his four years. We can't thank Dan enough for his part in molding Nolan's future. It truly does take a village to raise a child. We feel very blessed to have Dan in our village."

Bob Quinn, Athletic Director, Naperville North HS (Illinois)

"I had the unique perspective as his college supervisor and as a high school administrator. Dan's quality human relation skills allows him to develop relationships with student-athletes, college and high school coaches and parents. Dan was arguably the best college soccer coach in the country for the last 15 years and when he told me he was changing careers and getting into the recruiting space, I was excited to know there was someone out there I could count on for my high school student-athletes that needed help. Dan has worked with my department and some of our student-athletes and I truly believe TSA Recruiting is the best in this crowded industry. I recommend Dan and TSA to everyone."

Kevin Cavers, former student-athlete and assistant coach

"Coach Rothert has been involved with college recruiting since he graduated college. He knows the ins and outs of the minds of high school student athletes and encourages them to vocalize their thoughts about their college decision. During my time working with Coach Rothert, I witnessed him work with hundreds of high school students who are navigating the college recruitment process and he truly values the important decision teenagers have to make for their future."

Lynn Devriese, former student-athlete

"As a high school prospect, I always felt that Coach Rothert's focus was always on finding the best fit for me - as an athlete, academically, and socially. He made the college decision process feel so seamless and always made sure that my family and I had all our questions answered. The day I stepped on campus for the first time I felt confident that I had made the right decision."
